

Floodplain Management Ordinance Adoption

August 6, 2012

Floodplain Management Ordinance

- Consolidates existing floodplain regulations and adds new habitat protection standards as required under Endangered Species Act
- Development code updates include changes to Critical Areas, Definitions, and Administrative Changes (Planning Commission recommended changes May 3, 2012)
- Administration of regulations transferred from Planning and Community Development Director to Public Works Director

Extensive Public Process

- Planning Commission (April 5 and May 3)
- Council Presentations (June 4)
- Public Comment Period/Public Hearing
- Meetings with Residents
- SEPA
- Department of Ecology Comments

Recommendation

Adoption of Ordinance 641. Floodplain
Management and Related Development Code
Amendments

