

This Week in Shoreline

August 6, 2012

Highlights from the past weeks and previews of coming events

Aurora Mile 3a Ribbon Cutting

International Community Health Services demolishes old building

Lunchtime Concert

Tuesday, Aug. 7 at 12:00 p.m.

Richmond Beach Saltwater Park

Come listen to Caspar Babypants perform music to dance to for kids.

Part of the free Noon Concert Series.

Visit shorelinewa.gov for the full summer lineup.

National Night Out is August 7

Join your neighbors in the annual Night Out Against Crime. Block parties, barbecues and gatherings are taking place in neighborhoods throughout the City.

Contact your neighborhood representative for more information: shorelinewa.gov/neighborhoods.

DogFest 2012

Saturday, Aug. 11, 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Hamlin Park Lower Field

A fun day of dog activities including demonstrations, training sessions, pet expo and games. Bring the whole family including your favorite four legged friends!

Visit shorelinewa.gov for more info.

4-Corners BrewFest

Saturday, Aug. 11, 3:00 to 7:00 p.m.

Innis Arden Clubhouse

Tickets are still available for the second annual BrewFest! This adults-only event includes ten tastes from over 20 local craft breweries, great food and live bluegrass music.

Info and tickets: www.4-corners.org

Jazz Walk tickets still available

Tuesday, August 14, 7:00 p.m.
North City Business District

Advance tickets for a full evening of jazz in ten different venues are on sale at northcityjazzwalk.org.

Public Reminders

- The Quick-Start Business Workshop will meet on Tuesday, Aug. 7 at noon in Council Chambers. The theme is:

The Art of Effective Networking

