plastic bags

Comments:

Many of us use, reuse and recycle plastic shopping bags. Their availability is a factor in where I shop. For example, I no longer shop in Seattle where the bags are banned. Given that I travel around the Puget Sound area for work I have opportunities to shop elsewhere where the bags are still available. I prefer to do business locally to support our community but the banning of bags will adversely impact my local shopping decisions. Given the weak economy I would hope the City of Shoreline would not take action to drive business away from our city.
