Comments:

I am very concerned that the Shoreline Council is NOT considering the will of its westside residents with regard to Point Wells development. It is obvious that restraint from increasing traffic flow of Richmond Beach road will choke down the limits of development. Three thousand units is still way too many to preserve quality of life for Richmond Beach and Innis Arden. It looks as though the seduction of increased tax revenue is clouding your judgment. Snohomish county has acted irresponsibly. Please don't do the same. Join with Save Richmond Beach and the Town of Woodway to limit development to something truly reasonable. Michael Friedline
