

This Week in Shoreline

February 10, 2014

Highlights from the past weeks and previews of coming events

Storm Response

- Shoreline received approximately 3 inches of snow over the weekend.
- Our snow removal teams were activated on Saturday evening and worked through Sunday to plow and apply deicer.
- Shifts of four crewmembers each worked twelve hour shifts.

Owl boxes placed in parks

---

Owl boxes placed at Hamlin, Boeing Creek, and Twin Ponds parks.

Boxes are intended to attract Western Screech and Northern Saw-whet owls.

Federal Legislative Trip

Met with federal delegation to discuss:

- Changes in CDBG award allocations that would threaten Shoreline's eligibility
- Modifying the TIGER transportation funding grant program so the population threshold would include Shoreline-sized cities
- Long term transportation infrastructure strategy

RapidRide Service begins Feb 15

---

King County Metro's RapidRide service on Aurora will begin on Saturday and replace route 358. Service will be enhanced with buses arriving at predictable intervals, wi-fi on board, and BAT lane travel.
