7. Please honor the slowdown. I am 76 and my brother-in-law is 77. We have lived in our home for 49 years. The thought of moving terrifies us. We have seen areas with boxes they call places to live and are overwhelmed with how hideous they are. Surely time to rethink how things will look, would not be a bad thing.
Every summer we had a garden party. My yard was exquisite. I spend hours out there every day. It is full of animals and birds. My two cats need their home. Too many animals are abandoned when people have to move. Please be kind.

Respectfully
Judy Rice

Thank you,
