

Call for Art: Nature and the Machine

The Gallery at City Hall Shoreline in conjunction with Shoreline-Lake Forest Park Arts Council invites submissions for a group exhibition on the general theme of nature and the machine, a juxtaposition of seemingly opposing forces.

Image: David Francis, 2016

Nature and the Machine* can accommodate the work of 6-8 artists (5+ works each). Works can be 2D, 3D, installation-based (with total dimensions of maximum 8' in any direction), single-occurrence performances, video, or combinations of these media. Emerging and established artists from across the region are encouraged to submit. The opening reception is configured as a panel presentation & discussion about the topic and the artist's response.

Artistic and curatorial interpretations are assumed to be broad rather than narrow and we encourage submissions of existing or past work, whether it appears to fit or not. Inquires happily answered and no submission fees charged. Submissions are juried by David Francis, Shoreline Public Art Coordinator; and Lorie Hoffman, Executive Director, Shoreline-Lake Forest Park Arts Council.

Drop off: Monday August 8, 10:30 – 1:00; Opening / Panel Presentation: Saturday August 13, 4:00 – 6:00. Pick up: Friday Oct. 14, 11:00 – 2:00

- 10-15 digital images (low res is encouraged for ease of file sharing; 5 MB or below) that reflect a cohesive body of work with an image list that includes title, year of creation, medium, size and price
