

From: Plancom
To: Rachael Markle; Steve Szafran; Easton Craft; David Maul; William Montero; Paul Cohen; Lisa Basher; Jack Malek; Laura Mork; Miranda Redinger; Julie Ainsworth-Taylor; Susan Chang; Donna M. Moss
Subject: FW: comment on 20116 Development code amendments
Date: Tuesday, November 29, 2016 11:24:32 AM

From: Emily Kelton[SMTP:EMILY@MAKERLABNW.ORG]
Sent: Tuesday, November 29, 2016 11:24:23 AM
To: Plancom
Subject: comment on 20116 Development code amendments
Auto forwarded by a Rule

Hi,

I have started a Shoreline area Maker's group and we are desparately searching for a permanent space to create a makerspace in Shoreline for entrepreneurs, artists, and makers of all ages. Ideally, we are looking for light industrial space, and as a non-profit run by volunteers, the less costs for fees, the better. I fully support allowing light industrial businesses throughout the entire Town Center zones.

Thanks,

Emily Kelton
- President, MakerLab NW

Make. Learn. Share.

www.makerlabnw.org

<https://www.meetup.com/makerlabnw/>

MakerLab NW is fiscally sponsored by School Factory, Inc, a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization. See schoolfactory.org for more information.