7. Becoming a Sanctuary city carries a great deal of responsibility along with the status. I am curious as to how police officers and other city officials will frame their questions to get at the pertinent data necessary to provide equitable services yet not directly ask about the immigration status of the person they are talking to. I get the reasons but am troubled by the occasional outcomes of ignoring that information. Is there no room for gray or is this a yes/no decision only?
8. (O) Neutral

Thank you,
