7. As new residents of Shoreline, my husband and I are deeply disappointed that the city council is even considering a vote to make Shoreline a sanctuary city, thereby breaking with Federal laws, putting potential Federal funds at risk, not to mention the risks to its citizens. We chose Shoreline because it is a quiet, safe, bedroom community. If we had desired a "sanctuary city" we would have chosen Seattle or San Francisco—which we firmly avoided. As new local citizens we are deeply disappointed that the council is even considering this direction and remain hopeful that the council will do the right thing and stay true to its community roots and follow the spirit of the Federal law. We do not need another tragedy like the one in San Francisco to happen in our community.

We ask and hope the council delays any decision until they know exactly what is going to happen under the Trump administration.
