7. No homeless camps should be allowed on private residence property. Period. Not of any size. Not even with large buffers. This is a health concern, a safety concern, it welcomes lawlessness and health code violations, it lowers property values, and potentially leads to home owners insurance rate increases.

Also , no 'sanctuary cities'. No 'welcoming cities'. This is just code for 'sanctuary city.' We should be the opposite of Seattle. We should be a city that law abiding people want to come and visit. Seattle has become an unwelcoming city for law-abiding citizens: a pile of trash with no parking. I, and many thousands, avoid it at all costs.

If anyone doesn't like the Trump presidency, that is their prerogative, but the City should wait until policies are actually proposed and announced and respond accordingly.

Anyone who wants to welcome a homeless encampment in their yard should be required to house the person(s) inside their home.

Thank you,
