Social Justice Book Group Introductory Session

The Shoreline Social Justice Book (SSJB) group will be a rich opportunity to meet neighbors and build community by reading and discussing books written from diverse perspectives. Books selected will focus on the experiences of people of color, LGBTQ, people with disabilities, and other marginalized groups, as well as social issues such as immigration and poverty.

Potential books include: I Am Not Your Perfect Mexican Daughter by Erika Sanchez, Behold the Dreamers by Imbolo Mbue, The Refugees by Viet Thanh Nguyen, The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas, and Just Mercy by Bryan Stevenson.

Discussions will be held on the second Sunday of each month at Shoreline City Hall.

We will be choosing which books we'd like to read at this first meeting on February 11th.

If you are interested in participating, please RSVP to Denise Bugallo, at the Shoreline Library 206.362.7550 or dbugallo@kcls.org.

With funding from:

Reasonable accommodation for individuals with disabilities is available; please contact the library prior to the event if you require accommodation.
