

American History

Traveling Museum

THEUNSPOKENTRUTHS.COM

Tuesday, February 13th

Shoreline City Hall

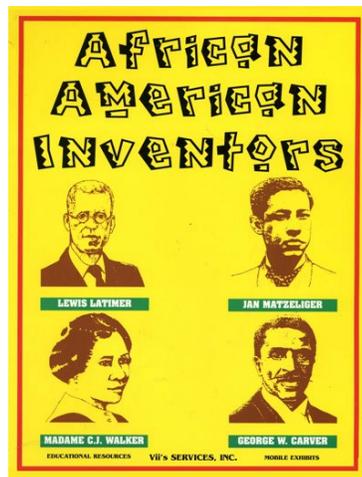

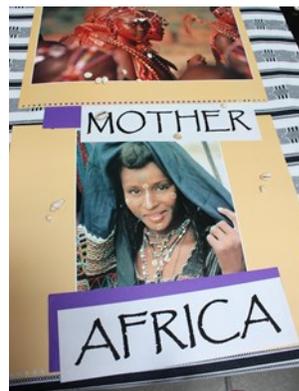

17500 Midvale Ave. N

Exhibit Open 4:00pm—8:30pm

Presentations at 4:30pm and 7:00pm
 by Delbert Richardson, founder of the American History Traveling Museum, community scholar and storyteller, winner of 2017 NEA Carter G. Woodson Memorial Award.

Learn about the rich history of Africans in Africa prior to chattel slavery, the experiences and impact of chattel slavery, Jim Crow Era, and the many contributions African Americans have had on science, culture, and technological innovations in the U.S. and the world. Provided in partnership by:

Free event! Contact Suni Tolton at stolton@shorelinewa.gov or 206-801-2256 for more info. The City of Shoreline is committed to ensuring a welcoming, inclusive, and safe community for all.