

Discussing Ordinance No. 827 and Ordinance No. 828

June 11, 2018

Ally Kim, B&O Tax Analyst

Rick Kirkwood, Budget Supervisor

Background

- Staff has undertaken the implementation process for Business and Occupation taxes
- FileLocal's standard configuration will require changes to SMC Chapters 3.30 and 3.32

Ordinance No. 827

- Assigns administrative responsibility for Gambling Tax (SMC 3.30) and Utility Tax (SMC 3.32) to the Administrative Services Director
- Aligns current penalty and interest rates and delinquency schedules with Tax Administrative Code (SMC 3.23)

Ordinance No. 828

- Delays collection of the annual business license fee for those businesses applying for or renewing a City business license in the fourth quarter of 2018 until January 19, 2019.

Impacts

- If Council adopts:

Ord. 827:

- City will follow FileLocal's standard configuration
- No additional costs to customize FileLocal

Ord. 828:

- Delay in collection of business license fees

Recommendation

- No action required at this time
- Ordinance Nos. 827 & 828 are proposed for adoption on June 25, 2018
