

Bicycle Lanes use striping, symbols, and signage to indicate that a portion of the roadway is for exclusive use by bicyclists.

Sharrows are road markings indicating that bicycles and vehicles are sharing the lane.

Wayfinding Signage indicates direction and distance to bicycle connections and destinations.

Shared-Use Paths separate pedestrians, bicyclists, and other nonmotorized users from the roadway for travel & recreation.