Shoreline City Council,

I, Linda Lawrukovich a resident of Shoreline is opposed to having any low barrier Shelter in Shoreline. The council should be focused on a city known for its safety, education, environment and quality of life without crime, which enforces the existing laws (i.e. think Bellvue). I am not interested in becoming another Seattle with the cesspool it has become as a result of inept city council members and mayor.

Thank you,
Linda Lawrukovich

I pay a lot of property taxes for my home. I expect that the money be used for good education, which is not happening to my utter horror.
