7. The haste and lack of consistent information provided by the council and staff does not instill confidence in the proposed project. It seems like the decision has already been made by most on the council. It is clear that answers provided and ordinances proposed are being tailored to fit the timeline and budget requirements. Please reject the low barrier facility keeping in mind the lasting impacts a low barrier facility will have on the families that live around the location.
8. (o) Oppose

Thank you,
