7. Dear Shoreline City Council Members,
As residents of Kirkland, we are urging our own City Council to take bold actions on environmental health and climate change. City of Shoreline has shown to be a role model. Eliminating fossil fuels from new construction is exactly the kind of bold action that is warranted right now. Fracked gas is a public health issue, an earthquake disaster risk, and a major contributor to GHG emissions. We urge you to build all-electric new buildings. Thank you for being a role model for King County.
