

Zoom Video
is shown here

This Week in Shoreline

May 9, 2022

Highlights from the past weeks and previews of coming events

Asian American Native Hawaiian Pacific Islander Heritage Month Display

Zoom Video
is shown here

Spartan Recreation Center
202 NE 185th Street, Shoreline

Visit Spartan Recreation Center throughout the month of May for a special display of local opportunities, leaders, and art celebrating the achievements and broad diversity of Asians and Pacific Islanders. More information and cultural items will be added throughout the month.

PRCS/Tree Board Youth Members

Zoom Video
is shown here

The City is seeking youth members to serve on the PRCS/Tree Board:

- Shoreline residents ages 15-19 encouraged to apply
- Youth members will serve during the 2022-23 and 2023-24 academic school years.
- Preference given to applicants able to serve both years.
- EXTENDED: Applications due by 5 p.m. on Friday, May 13.

Learn more and apply: shorelinewa.gov

TMP Update Survey

Zoom Video
is shown here

The Transportation Master Plan (TMP) Update is kicking off the third outreach series with short informational videos and a survey. The City would like your feedback on draft plans for various travel modes (auto, transit, pedestrian, and bicycle) and criteria for prioritizing draft transportation projects.

More info: shorelinewa.gov/tmp

Shoreline Walks

Zoom Video
is shown here

Saturday, May 14, 10AM

Echo Lake Elementary, 19345 Wallingford Ave N

Enjoy the spring blooms and new foliage on the trees! Join your neighbors and volunteer walk leader Donna to explore several parks in the Echo Lake neighborhood. Meet at Echo Lake Elementary.

Learn more:

shorelinewa.gov/shorelinewalks